Dear Alpha Gamma Delta,

Emily Perlow, the Assistant Dean of Students at Worcester Polytechnic Institute has been awarded a $2,000 Doctoral Fellowship by Order of Omega.

The Fellowship Award was founded to recognize professionals in higher education who exemplify the ideals of the fraternal movement. Candidates for the Fellowship Award must be employed full-time or part-time, or a graduate assistant with direct and/or previous direct responsibilities for advising Fraternity/Sorority Life and/or Order of Omega. Candidates must also be currently enrolled in an accredited Master's or Doctoral degree program in Higher Education, Student Personnel, or a related field.

Since 1985, the Order of Omega has awarded over $1 million in scholarships and graduate fellowships. For more information regarding Order of Omega and the Fellowship Award, please visit our website at www.orderofomega.org.

On behalf of the Executive Council of Order of Omega, please accept our congratulations to your organization for developing such an outstanding example of Fraternity & Sorority Life.

Thank you for your support of Order of Omega.

Fraternally,

Mardie T. Sorensen
